Where Is Home?

My grandmother lives in a village, and I visit her every summer. On the one hand, the city has more facilities: big hospitals, modern schools and cinemas. On the other hand, the village gives me something the city cannot: fresh air, quiet nights and the smell of fresh bread. The city is convenient, but the countryside is peaceful. When I grow up, I want to work in the city but have a small house in the village. That would be perfect!

Comprehension Questions (Matn savollari)

1. What facilities does the city have?
2. What does the village give the writer?
3. What does the writer want when he grows up?
4. What does 'perfect' mean to the writer?
