The Missing Key

Last Friday, I was studying in my room when I heard my mother calling: 'Have you seen my keys?' I was helping her look when my little brother walked in. While he was eating a biscuit, he suddenly stopped. 'What's in my pocket?' he asked. We looked — it was the key! He was playing with it in the morning and forgot. In the end, everyone laughed, and my mother put the key on a hook. 'From now on,' she said, 'keys stay on this hook!'

? Comprehension Questions (Matn savollari)

1. What was the writer doing when mother called?
2. What was the little brother doing?

The Story of the Storm

🎵 3 tasks — listen and answer.

1. What was the family doing when the storm started?
2. What happened while they were watching?
3. What did they do in the end?

Script (teacher reads aloud)

Listen. Last week, while we were having dinner, a storm started. Suddenly, the lights went out. We were sitting in the dark when my father found candles. While he was lighting them, my little sister started to cry. 'Don't worry,' my mother said. 'This is an adventure!' In the end, we told stories by candlelight. It was actually fun!

Telling a Story — Lesson 92

- Storytelling is the heart of B1 speaking.
- Teach was/were + -ing with picture prompts.
- Watch for 'was + base verb'.
- This feeds L94 (storytelling circle) and L100.
